Principal activities and review of the Charity

During the accounting year the Charity's principal activities were:

Building Blitz 2022

The annual Building Blitz to Cape Town in South Africa took place from 5th November to 11th November 2022. The Building Blitz took place in the Western Cape Township of Khayelitsha 28km out of Cape Town at the Injongo and Yomelela Primary Schools. Two Hundred and Thirty international volunteers were joined by several South African Volunteers to participate in this years building Blitz. The Volunteers help build twenty three classrooms, two kitchens, two ablution blocks, two covered shelters and improved sport facilities impacting the quality of education for over 2500 children attending the two schools. This has been made possible through our partnership with the Western Cape Education Department, our wonderful and generous volunteers, Donors and corporate sponsorships.

Education Programmes

Mellon Educate's Community Literacy Support Programme for Primary schools, was launched in January 2022, replacing our previous Full School Programme which had supported 11 primary and secondary schools. The dedicated programme was developed over a 3 year period in response to the International PIRLS report of 2016, where South African children were assessed as the lowest performing participants with results indicating that 78% of learners were unable to read for meaning by Grade 4., (age 9-10 years)

The programme incorporates the Wordswork 4 step programme, (Ready Steady Read Write) delivered by trained Community Literacy tutors. In one hour once a week the programme offers support to children struggling with the basics of literacy and language in the foundation phase of their education and is delivered in 3 languages by trained youth from communities surrounding our partner schools. Our partner schools in 2022 consisted of 7 primary schools based in Khayelitsha, Mfuleni, The Delft, Wesbank and Wallacedene supporting 883 learners.

Western Cape Education Department

Mellon Educate continues to develop a strong and meaningful partnership with the Minister for Education in the Western Cape, MEC David Maynier and his department. The selection of schools where both the infrastructure work and education assistance takes place is done in consultation with the WCED in order to ensure the areas of most need are identified and helped to maximum effect. The WCED contributes 50% of the construction costs to the annual building blitz, thereby endorsing the work the charity is carrying out so successfully in the Western Cape.

Humanitarian Aid

In 2021 the Covid 19 pandemic created a humanitarian crisis of epic proportion. This created a dire need to continue to provide emergency nutrition to school families and the broader community surrounding our partner schools. The Mellon Team adapted their support to include a humanitarian aid response started in March 2020 and continued to support various feeding kitchens in 2022

The Future

Going forward, the Charity intends to continue supporting the work of Mellon Educate Ireland as referred to above. The Trustees will also consider supporting any new initiatives of Mellon Educate Ireland which fall within the Charity's objects.

The Volunteer Building Blitz for 2022 was opened up again after a two year 'NO Travel' restriction due to Covid.

The reaction of volunteers exceeded our expectations and were very pleased to welcome just over 220 volunteers on our 2022 trip to South Africa in support of our building Blitz.

With the success of the 2022 building Blitz behind us we are looking forward to the 2023 building trip where we are well on track to welcoming 300+ volunteers to help us build 20 classrooms, 2 kitchens, 2 ablution facilities, covered eating and play areas and playground/sport areas. The 2023 Blitz will be held across two schools, Isiphiwo Primary School and Chuma Primary school, located in the township of Khayelitsha about 26 km out of Cape Town.

Financial review

The statement of financial activities and balance sheet are set out on page 14 and 15. The surplus for the year amounted to £45,413 (2021 - £73,980). The unrestricted funds carried forward amounted to £207,725. It is also noted that the administration and accounts functions of this entity are carried out by Mellon Educate Ireland (pursuant to a resource sharing agreement), effectively reducing the costs of the Charity to generate funds.

Going concern

The trustees believe that the charity has adequate financial resources to continue in operation for the foreseeable future and accordingly the annual financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. Management has assessed the charity's ability to continue as a going concern for the foreseeable future and is not aware of any factors beyond their period of assessment that may cast doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern. Management thus considers the use of the going concern principle to be appropriate in the preparation of the annual financial statements. The trustees have satisfied themselves that the charity is in a sound financial position and that it has access to sufficient ongoing fundraising activities together with reserve facilities to meet its foreseeable cash requirements. The trustees are also not aware of any material non-compliance with statutory or regulatory requirements or of any pending changes to legislation, which may affect the charity.

Reserves policy

Unrestricted Funds: Funds generated will be utilised to continue the support of the School Building Blitzes and Mellon Educate Literacy programme and related initiatives. The Trustees will continue to ensure that reserves remain in place to meet the current commitment to operations, and maximise the contributions the charity makes to its objectives.

At the current operating costs and activity levels the Trustees consider the minimum cash reserves requirement to be set at a level of £30,000 (Cash reserves in 2022 £461,097). Mellon Educate Ireland continue to support the operations of Mellon Educate (UK) and will continue to do so going forward.

Restricted Funds: When funds are received where it is the wish of the donor to assist in a specific project or to fund a particular activity the funds are held as a restricted fund and applied only for the specific purposes for which the monies were given.

Disclosure of Information to Auditors

Each of the persons who are Trustees at the time when this Trustees' Report is approved has confirmed that:

- so far as that Trustee is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Charity's auditors are unaware, and
- that Trustees have taken all the steps that ought to have been taken as a Trustee in order to be aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Charity's auditors are aware of that information.

Post Balance Sheet Events

The Trustees are not aware of any significant matter or circumstance arising since the end of the financial year, not otherwise dealt with in this report or the financial statements, which significantly affect the financial position of the charity or the results of its operation to the date of these annual financial statements.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under charity law, the Trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, of the charity for that year.

In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles of the Charities SORP (FRS 102);
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards (FRS 102) have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Auditors' Report to the Members of Mellon Educate (UK)

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Mellon Educate (UK) (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 December 2022 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows and the related notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and Financial Reporting Standard 102 'United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice'.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 December 2022 and of its incoming resources and application of resources;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011.

Independence

We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the United Kingdom, including the Financial Reporting Council's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the Trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the Trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our Auditors' Report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Charities Act 2011

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Trustees' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements reappeared is consistent with the financial statements.
- the Trustees' Report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charity and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Trustees' Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Charities Act 2011 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the Trustees' Report and from the requirement to prepare a Strategic Report.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Trustees' Responsibilities Statement, the Trustees (who are also the trustees of the charitable company for the purposes of charity law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Mellon Educate (UK)
(a foundation charitable incorporated organisation (CIO))

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

This report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Charities Act 2011. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's members those matters we are required to state to them in an Auditors' Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Extent to which the audit was capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of noncompliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

- Enquiry with Those Charged with Governance and management regarding known or suspected instances of non-compliance with laws and regulation and fraud, including actual or potential litigation and claims;
- Reviewing minutes of meetings of Those Charged with Governance, internal audit reports and correspondence with regulators.
- Assessing the design and operating effectiveness of controls and procedures relevant to the preparation of the financial statements and the detection and prevention of irregularities and fraud, including changes to supplier bank details;
- Reviewing financial statement disclosures and testing supporting documentation to assess compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- Challenging the assumptions and judgements made by management for key estimates, in particular the assumptions used to value the defined benefit pension scheme;
- Identifying and testing the appropriateness of journal entries and other adjustments, with particular focus on unusual account combinations and postings by unexpected users or senior management; and
- Incorporating unpredictability into our testing approach through amending the nature and extent of audit procedures.

Our audit procedures were designed to respond to risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, recognising that the risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery, misrepresentations or through collusion. There are inherent limitations in the audit procedures performed and the further removed non-compliance with laws and regulations is from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, the less likely we are to become aware of it

2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.9 Debtors

Short term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment

2.10 Cash at bank and in hand

Cash is represented by cash in hand and deposits with financial institutions repayable without penalty on notice of not more than 24 hours. Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with insignificant risk of change in value.

2.11 Creditors

Short term creditors are measured at the transaction price.

2.12 Financial instruments

The Charity only enters into basic financial instrument transactions that result in the recognition of financial assets and liabilities like related party receivables and other payables. Basic financial instruments are recorded at transaction price.

3. Judgments in Applying Accounting Policies and Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with FRS 102 requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements.

The Trustees do not have any significant accounting estimates and assumptions which they consider to be critical accounting estimates and judgments.
